Over 30,000 Worldwide Participate in the 6th Annual Pat's Run

To all of the Pat's Run supporters who attended the 6th annual Pat's Run to Run, Walk and Honor Pat's legacy – Thank You for being with us every step of the way. To the hundreds of Shadow Runners who celebrated with us from locations throughout the world, we are honored by your commitment to be a part of the event. Because of our many dedicated sponsors, volunteers and participants, the event was the largest to date with 30,000 participants, raising important funds to support our scholarship programs.

A limited number of 2009 and 2010 adult Pat's Run race shirts and 2010 kids run t-shirts are now available online. Simply download and complete the Pat's Run t-Shirt order form. All proceeds from Pat's Run t-shirt donations directly support the Tillman Military Scholars program.

Check out photos from Pat's Run, Shadow Runs and Troop Runs on our Facebook page and load your own Pat's Run shots in the fan section. See you all April 2011 for the 7th annual Pat's Run!

Graduating Tillman Military Scholars and Tillman Scholars – ASU

The Pat Tillman Foundation would like to extend congratulations to all of the Tillman Scholars graduating around the country! Many have already secured jobs in their chosen fields and they are all ready to continue to make a difference in their communities.

Inaugural Pat Tillman Legacy Summit

Tuesday, June 8 and Wednesday, June 9 the inaugural Pat Tillman Legacy Summit will convene in Washington D.C. to increase awareness of the hardships military families face as well as raise important awareness for the Pat Tillman Foundation and the Tillman Military Scholars program.

During the two day event, more than half of the current class of 52 Tillman Military Scholars will have an opportunity to come together for the first time to meet, share their stories and take to Capital Hill to let their hometown members of Congress know the need for increased support of veterans and military families. For more information on the Summit please email info@pattillmanfoundation.org

Pat Tillman named to the College Football Hall of Fame

On Thursday, May 27th the National Football College Hall of Fame announced Pat Tillman as one of the 12 players and two coaches announced for induction in this year's elite class. To read more about the 2010 induction class please click here.

The Pat Tillman Foundation wishes the Tillman Family and the Arizona State University community our sincerest congratulations. Pat exemplified all aspects of the College Hall of Fame through his actions on the field, in the classroom and in the community.

Team Tillman

The Pat Tillman Foundation would like to thank the members of Team Tillman Pat's Run 2010 Together their efforts resulted in donations over $38,000 to support the Tillman Military Scholars program. Did you know you can raise funds and awareness for the Pat Tillman Foundation at any race or athletic event nationwide? Sign up as a member of Team Tillman Individual and earn exclusive Under Armour Team Tillman gear in conjunction with different fundraising goals. Each individual is provided access to a personal Team Tillman fundraising webpage to assist with their efforts. Learn more about the Team Tillman program on our website.

We love receiving pictures from our Team Tillman members as they complete their events.

Please take a moment to see the amazing photos of Team Tillman member Jim Scott of Colorado at the Great Wall Marathon.

On May 15, 2010, Jim Scott from Colorado represented Team Tillman when he competed in The Great Wall Marathon in the mountains of the Tianjin Province, China. Revered as one of the most challenging marathons in the world, the route included long stretches on The Great Wall and a total of 5,164 stairs of varying length and size. The race was held for the 11th year and included 486 runners from 53 different countries.
